

Name/Surname: Dimitrios V. Skiadas

Title/Organizer: Professor/Department of International & European Studies – University of Macedonia

Personal information:

Date of Birth: 26.10.1973

Place of Birth: Athens

Marital Status: Married (2 children)

Education:

Degree in Law Department of the University of Athens (1997)

Master of Jurisprudence – MJur, University of Durham – UK (1998)

Doctor of Philosophy (EU Law) – PhD, University of Durham – UK (2001)

Specialization Education: European Union Law & Governance, Public & Financial Law (comparative & national), Control and Anti-Fraud, Foreign Direct Investment Law, National and European Regional Policy, Project Management

Career:

Dr. Dimitrios Skiadas is Professor of Fiscal Governance and European Union Law and holder of the Jean Monnet Chair, at the Department of International & European Studies - University of Macedonia. He has taught at the Law Department of the University of Durham, the University of Athens, the Icaron School, and the (former) University of Central Greece, while he is a Visiting Researcher at the Center for the Study of Europe/Pardee School of Global Studies at Boston University (USA). He was President of the Research Ethics & Ethics Committee at the University of the Aegean (2019-2022). He is a certified Fraud Examiner (Certified Fraud Examiner) from the global Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE). He has served as General Secretary of Trade at the Ministry of Development, Special Secretary for the European Union and Management of European Programs at the Ministry of Education, Executive Secretary at the South Aegean Region, Scientific Associate of the Vice-President of the Special Committee on European Affairs of the Greek Parliament, etc. He has also been employed in the private sector as Director in a Vocational Training Center and in positions of responsibility in private companies. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the European Center for the Development of Vocational Training (CEDEFOP), and has been a member of the Education Committee of the Council of Ministers of the European Union, the Monitoring Committees of the Third Community Support Framework and several Operational Programs, and the Monitoring Group of the National Reform Program within the framework of the Lisbon Strategy. He is a member of many research organizations such as the Hellenic Anti-Fraud Institute (ACFE Greece Chapter), the Hellenic Association of European Law, the Association of Greek Publicists, the Society for Administrative Studies, the Institute for International, European and Defence Analyses, the Association of Greek Regionalists, the Hellenic Society of Political Science, etc. Finally, he has received an honorary distinction as an Honorary Fellow of the Association of Fellows and Legal Scholars of the Center for International Legal Studies, Salzburg (Austria).

Publications:

Mr. Skiadas' publications include sixteen scientific books (Greek and international publications), and over seventy studies (contributions of chapters to collective scientific works, and articles in scientific Greek and international journals on topics of his specialty).

Languages: Greek (Native), English, French, Italian